New Motions

1. Moved by Councillor Holland

Seconded by Councillor M^cLaren

Whereas gender equality and the principle of diversity is enshrined in the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms and ensures that everyone can participate fully in democratic society; and

Whereas gender equity and diversity at all levels of policy development is key to ensuring higher quality of life for all residents in the City of Kingston; and

Whereas societal and systemic barriers exist for under-represented groups such as women, persons with disabilities, and racialized peoples, that prevent full participation in leadership roles across society, including committees, boards and elected office in the City of Kingston; and

Whereas the Federation of Canadian Municipalities has produced a framework to guide municipalities in improving diversity and gender equity, entitled “Run, Win and Lead: Toward Parity in Municipal Politics, Municipal Sector Framework for Achieving Gender Parity in Local Government”;

Therefore Be It Resolved That staff provide recommendations to Council by Q2 2021 on increasing rates of under-represented people on municipal committees and boards and incorporating the equity goals from the FCM framework for the 2022 municipal candidate nomination process.

2. Moved by Councillor Hutchison

Seconded by Councillor Osanic

Whereas considerable concern has been raised in Ontario, Canada and across North America about the relationship of Black, Indigenous and People of Colour (BIPOC), the Black Lives Matter movement and police services; and

Whereas City Council has been requested by community members to change the nature of policing to remove bias against BIPOC and/or to defund the police in whole or in part and redistribute those resources to social-economic programs more benefitting those populations; and

Whereas there have been previous attempts by Kingston City Council and the Kingston Police Services in the mid-2000's to improve police services relating to BIPOC; and

Whereas the Kingston Chief of Police has indicated that police services are working to improve relations and services with BIPOC and removing systemic racism from police services;

Therefore Be It Resolved That Kingston City Council invite the Kingston Chief of Police to provide a briefing, on January 19, 2021, before City budget talks to indicate how the police budget is constructed to deal with the concerns raised by BIPOC and Black Lives Matter and how those elements are related to other priorities in the police budget.
